- The airfield was several kilometers west of Kherson (32°36° E/46°39° N), Ukrainian bok.
- Parachuting from individual Douglas planes was observed. Twelve parachutistsm each equipped with two parachutes, jumped from each plane.

25X1A

Comment:

The airfield west-northwest of Kherson, south of the road to Bikolayev, known since the German occupation, had no runway. From the few reported facts it is assumed that the field is occupied by a small parachute unit. This assumption requires confirmation by more recent reports.
